

Elm Fork Creek Trail

The Elm Fork Trail will follow along Elm Fork Creek from the Trinity Meanders near I-35E to just south of Bachman Lake. The trail will connect to the Trinity Strand Trail and provide access to Arlington Park and Sleep Hollow Park as well as Bachman Lake and the Elm Fork Greenbelt through a connection to the Trinity Levee Trail.

Total Planned Length: 18,480 Linear Feet (3.5 miles)
Total Current Length: 0 Linear Feet
Percent Complete: 0%
Surface: Concrete
Width: 12 Feet
Right-of-Way Status: Public right-of-way is currently available, however easements or property acquisition may be necessary for small sections of the trail.
Est. Unfunded Need: $4.5 Million

